

BUILD MAMA A COFFIN
Trailer

1927, Esau County, Virginia, from the Esau Independent obituary section.

Gloria Anne Boggs, age 79, was called suddenly home last Sunday on the 14th of September. A lifelong resident of the Boggs holler section of Glamorgan, Virginia, Gloria Anne was a beloved member of the local community. She is preceded into the Lord's kingdom by her loving husband Wayland Gregory Boggs and her parents Oliver and June Teasley. She is survived by her three children, Vernard Michael, Wally Dell Hobar, and her only daughter Mercy Boggs-Carter, as well as three grandchildren, Indiana, Daniel, and Delia.

She held no church affiliation. May God have mercy on her soul.

[Build Mama a Coffin by Blood on the Harp]

Gonna build Mama a coffin, I'm gonna make it out of pine

There'll be tears from sister to make those hinges shine

Gonna build Mama a coffin, I'm gonna make it out of spruce

They can all act broken when they hear the news

That Mama's dead and gone...

Build Mama a Coffin, an all-new tale set in the world of Old Gods of Appalachia.
